

A BOTTLE HE VALUED.
A funny thing occurred on a Pullman car the other night. A gentleman had gone to bed in one of the lower berths and thinking the upper berth would not be occupied placed his valise there. As the train filled up all the berths were taken. It became necessary for the porter to remove his valise and place it on the floor at the side of his berth. In doing so he let the valise down with a jar that broke a bottle in it, the contents of which ran out. "Golly," he cried, "I have broken a bottle." "Broken a bottle?" came a roar from behind the curtains. "Did you break a bottle in the valise?" "Guess I did, sir." "Do you know, porter, you have put me to the bad?" "Bottle of Bourbon, sir?" "No, sir, it was a bottle of Red Raven, the only pleasant tasting aperient water. I was to take it to-morrow before breakfast. You can't get any substitute for Red Raven. Nothing acts so gently on the liver or is so good for a man after he has spent a night on the cars. I would rather have had you wreck the train than have broken that bottle." "Do not get excited, sir," replied the porter, "I know the goods. Indeed they are excellent. Don't worry; you can get them on the diner in the morning."

BROWN-BASKIN CASE TO DATE

OCALA COMMENT ON CELEBRATED QUESTION THAT WILL BE DECIDED SOON.

The Ocala Star says: Interest in the Brown-Baskin sensational contest, case is greatly interesting the people of the state as the conversations heard at Tallahassee and on the train upon our return home this morning amply testify. Everybody is wondering how it will come out. There are no definite means of knowing, because the evidence closed yesterday morning by putting Rev. Farris, Presbyterian preacher at Miami, on the stand. He was asked if he had approached C. M. Brown, Sr., about joining that church, and he replied that he had, but Brown said "Not for the present." Brown was the last witness. His memory in regard to certain conversations held with people of Ocala about his removal from Ocala and casting his lot with the people of Miami was very remiss. He either didn't remember the said conversations, or could not recall them. Brown evidently felt troubled when Attorney Zewadski asked him if he had not hidden forewell to the Presbyterian Sunday school, of which he was superintendent, when he sold out his business in Ocala and moved to Miami. His denial was in a faint voice and a pallid hue spread over his lips.

In the testimony of Judge McAllister of Miami, it was brought out that Mr. Brown introduced Mr. Felder Lang then of Ocala, to Mr. Tatum of Miami, and Mr. Tatum sold to Mr. Lang a lovely place on the banks of the Miami river for $17,000 cash; that Mr. Brown got half of the commission from the sale, and as the witness expressed it, "it was a good fat one"—at which the members of the committee and those hearing the evidence smiled a broad smile.

Rev. W. C. Lindsay simply testified that Mr. Brown's name was still on the Presbyterian church roll in this city, and his name was carried on the roll as superintendent of the Sunday school, but it was church policy to do so for a year, no matter where a member or Sunday school superintendent went to live.

The only senator who attended the hearing of the evidence from start to finish was Bailey of Jefferson. We also noticed the presence Thursday evening of Senator Jackson of Ocala. People away from home are desirous to know what the people of the 20th senatorial district think of the matter. We told them our people were unanimous, almost to a man, for the retirement of Brown.

Mr. Brown was a passenger on the train last night for Miami, the senate and house having adjourned before noon yesterday until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, so that those who desired could take in the Pensacola excursion and see the U. S. warships. On that train, in the "smoker," sat Attorney Zewadski and Mr. Brown, and the running comments that passed on the status of the contest were interesting and amusing in the extreme, and excited laughter enough to last the listeners for a month. The attorney kept "the senator from any old place," to use Senator Bailey's words in speaking of Mr. Brown, on the run.

Attorney Zewadski will return to Tallahassee Monday to argue the case before the committee on behalf of Dr. Baskin, while Attorney Fred Myers of Tallahassee will represent Mr. Brown.

The testimony in the case was taken down in shorthand to be published, and will make interesting reading.

Mr. Brown is of the opinion the case will not reach a decision before the first of May.

NEW YORK ARTIST

Recommends Vinol to Create Strength

A prominent New York artist, Mr. Jules de Naton, writes: "This is to certify that I have taken Vinol and found it of great value as an appetizer and tonic in general debility. After all other tonics and medicines had failed to help me Vinol built up my strength and invigorated my whole system in a remarkably short time. It is certainly a delicious cod liver oil preparation and contains none of the greasy, disagreeable features of old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions."

JULES DE NATON.

and I want to recommend Vinol to every one who is in a weak, run-down debilitated condition." This is only another illustration that where all other tonics and emulsions of cod liver oil fail, Vinol will purify and enrich the blood, increase the appetite and create strength.

W. H. White & Co., druggists, say: "The reason Vinol accomplishes such remarkable results is because it contains in a concentrated form all the curative, strength creating properties of that famous old remedy, cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work."

We wish every man, woman or child in Pensacola, who is run down, tired, debilitated or overworked would try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails. W. H. White & Co., druggists.

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave. Hot Springs, Ark., April 20, 1905.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at last I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

The end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years. I took Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHAUTAUQUE CLUB.

WINE OF CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.

Most of My Old Friends Know

The one reason why we have no old goods in stock is because I sell everything for Men's and Boys' wear at such a close margin. But, then, you see, ready money in buying goods is a great power, and since I sell for cash my selling price is not far ahead of my buying price—and there's no bad debts to wipe out any profits.
